DAUGHTERS OF THE REVOLUTION.

A New Society to Perpetuate the Memory of Patriotic Woman,

It is proposed to form the society of Daughters of the American Revolution. Its purpose is to gather materials for history, to preserve souvenirs of the Revolution, to study the manners the best methods of perpetuating the memories of our succestors and celebruting their achievements. Especially ls It desired to preserve some record of the herete deeds of American women. Any woman is ellerable to membership who is lineally descended from an an-cestor who assisted in establishing American independence during the war of the Revolution, either as a military or naval officer, a soldler or salloy, or civilian. It is most earnestly requested that those women eligible for membership will send their names to Miss Eugenia Washington, Registrar, 813 Thirteenth street northwest.

Potomac Club Regatta,

The second club regatta of the Potomac Boat Club yesterday afternoon was quite successful, and the races, of which there were four, were closely contested and exciting. Fischer won the senior singles, and Measts, Fisher, Norton, Smithson and Sawyer the senior fours. The event of the day was the race between the eights. A green crew, coxswained by John Hadley Dovic, defeated the club's champion eight by three lengths. The last race was between juntor fours, and was won by Rhinchart, Cilley, Pierce and Doyle. After the racing a dance was held in Boys Can't Be Anything Else.

Mary M. Heward, who resides at No. 1409 Coreoran street, some days ago complained to Major Moore that a crowd of boys made a practice of gathering in front of her house and making lots of noise. The Major referred the letter to the lieutenant of the precinet, and the cutcome was that five boys were brought before Judge Mills this morning. Mrs. Howard did not seem disposed to give evidence against them, however, and Leaving With Good Wishes.

Mr. Andrew Wiegand, who recently resigned his position as assistant super-Intendent of the projectile shop, Navy-Yard, to take charge of the Carpenter Steel Works at Reading, Pa., was proented last evening by the employes of his shop with a handsome gold-headed cane and a set of drafting instruments as a mark of their esteem. Mr Wiegand in one of the most skilful machinists at the Yord and his resignation is regretted both by officers and men.

A Gruesome Hiding Place, Officer Trammell last night arrested Julius, better known as Peck Adams, and placed him behind the bars at the Fifth street station. When Trammell first undertook to arrest Adams he claims that the man took refuge in an unoccupied grave in an old cometery. Later, however, he captured him at his home, corner of First and G streets. Adams is charged with wife besting.

The Bartender's Fault. Catrina Hudson, charged with keeping her har open after hours, forfeited her collateral the other day in the Pelice Court. To day her bartender, Charles Hallett, came 1010 court and pleasted guilty to the complaint. Judge Mills placed the fine, under the circum-stances, at $10, and allowed the for-feited collateral to apply to the pay-ment of it.

Fall from a Scalloid.

Edgar A. Kennedy, a painter, while at work on a house on Pennsylvania avenue, between Twenty-fifth and Twenty stath streets northwest, yesterday, fell from the scaffold and sustained scrious injuries to his head and back. He was taken to his home, 1714 Fourth northwest, where Dr. Scott dressed his wounds.

Vagrant Boresman.

Early in the week Raymond Horseman, charged with vagrancy, told Judge Mills a very clever story, and, under certain promises and conditions, in was granted his liberty. Horseman was be-fore his Honor again to day on the same charge, and was given a $20 fine or two months in jail.

SELLING LIQUOR TO MINORS.

Judge Mills Imposes a Heavy Fine and Speaks His Mind. Henry Murray, who keeps a saloon

st No. 1705 Seventh street, was fined the maximum penalty of $50 by Judge and measures of those days, to devise | Mills this morning for selling liquor Murray sold Frank Moore, a 13-year-old boy, a half-pint of whisky, and he and two other boys named Edward Louckey and Frank Lowcraft drank it. They were found in an intoxicated con-dition by Officers Daly and Eighn. In Imposing the fine Judge Mills said: 'In my opinion there is no violation of the law so damnable as that of selling liquor to a young boy and creat-ing within him an appetite that may result in his ruin and perhaps his death." Mr. Murray's counsel noted an appeal.

The Personally-Conducted Tour to Ningara Falls via Pennsylvania Baltroad on Thursday Next,

Haitroad on Thursday Next,

The singularly attractive features embedied in these tours have made them not only popular and sought after, but they have stamped the Pennsylvania Railroad with all the credit for one of the greatest modern railroad achievements—that of making traveling equal to being in one's own home. Under the attentive eye of a tourist agent and chaperon, who are always on the alert, looking after their temporary guests, the tourist has no bother or worry, but gives himself up to the full enjeyment and pleasure of the trip. The prospects for the last one, Thursday, August 21, are very bright.

This tour will leave Washington by special train of Pullman Parlor Cars and Day Coaches at 7:10 a. m.; Haltimore, Union Station, at 8:20, and arrive at the Falls at 11 p. m. Round trip tickets, valid for tendays, allowing a stop-off at Watkins in a ther direction, will be sold at $10. It will be well to remember that this is the last epportunity to enjoy one of these very a lest and pleasurable outlogs, and immediate attention should be paid to security over a supplication to Pennsylvania Halfoad leket offices.

Indigestion

Is not only a distressing complaint, of itself, but, by causing the blood to become depraved and the system en feebled, is the parent of innumerab maladies. That Ayer's Sarsaparilla in the best cure for Indigestion, even when complicated with Liver Compliant, when complicated with Liver Complaint, is proved by the following testimony from Mrs. Joseph Lake, of Brockway Contre, Mich.:—

"Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold ageny, was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time monitoned soveral physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took sessued to do any permanent good until I communiced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced won-erful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an improvement in my condition. My appetite began to return and with H came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few needs of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well womae, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life."
